Total announces its second 2018 interim dividend

Paris, July 26, 2018 - In accordance with the Board of Directors decision of February 7, 2018 regarding the 2018-20 shareholder return policy, the second 2018 interim dividend is set at 0.64 euro per share, an increase of 3.2% compared to the three interim dividends and the final dividend paid for the 2017 fiscal year. This interim dividend is stable compared to the first 2018 interim dividend.

The Board of Directors will meet on December 12, 2018, to declare the conditions of this second 2018 interim dividend payment.

According to the fourth resolution adopted by the Combined General Meeting of June 1, 2018, the option to pay this second 2018 interim dividend in new shares of the company will be proposed and the payment will be made according to the following timetable:

|   |                                      |
|---|--------------------------------------|
| Ex-dividend date                                      | December 18, 2018                    |
| Period to elect to receive the payment in new shares  | December 18, 2018 to January 2, 2019 |
| Payment date in cash or shares issued in lieu of cash | January 10, 2019                     |

Holders of Total's American Depositary Receipts ("ADRs") will receive the second 2018 interim dividend in dollars based on the then-prevailing exchange rate according to the following timetable:

|   |                   |
|---|-------------------|
| ADR ex-dividend date                                      | December 14, 2018 |
| ADR record date   | December 17, 2018 |
| ADR payment date in cash or shares issued in lieu of cash | January 17, 2019  |

Registered ADR holders may also contact JP Morgan Chase Bank for additional information. Non-registered ADR holders should contact their broker, financial intermediary, bank or financial institution for additional information.
